Meeting called to order by Major Chris Mullins.

Roll Call taken. Dan Small and Neil Heineke absent.

Roger Nenne made motion to approve minutes, seconded by Nate Waldschmidt.

Erik Gerdes has been trying to communicate with Suez about the water tower and pump house problems. No response back from them yet.

No word on Fire Station Transfer papers as of yet.

The ElPaso Mayor mentioned to Chris Mullins that they have a broken window ordinance. Chris is looking into it to see if we have one or if we should have one. He is concerned about the Old Post Office building it is in bad shape and has been neglected by the owner.

Randall Koehler has resigned from snow plowing, Tyler Van Eck is interested in the position. We need a new or good used snow plow truck, Chris looking into purchasing one before winter hits. Ours is in bad shape.

Chris mentioned that Woodford County Committee and the Greater Peoria Economic Development have 25 million dollars for Woodford county rundown buildings in towns to use. Chris looking into this. Maybe use on rundown buildings in town to fix to beautify the town.

Julie Wolf pricing banners that will be on Rte. 116, for the town.

Roger Nenne made motioned to adjourn, seconded by Clint Kearfott.
